DEDICATION

Mr. Meinelt

This year's dedication is truly a special one, for this man is one of few in Masconomet history to contribute not only as student, but also as a member of the faculty. Mr. Meinelt was a participant in the Masconomet graduating class of 1971. Terry Meinelt could be called the original "Mr. Masco", participating in plays and musicals along with being a member of the Chef's Club, Announcers, Student Council, and Speech Club. He was even the assistant editor for the Mitobo yearbook in 1971. After graduating, he continued his education majoring in Art at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, then earning his masters degree from the Massachusetts College of Art. In 1976 he returned to Masconomet to become an art teacher, following in his father's footsteps.

Today, Mr. Meinelt is known for his ability to inspire his students to exceed their potential. His guidance offers insightful advice while allowing the individual styles of his students to shine through. Terry Meinelt can relate to everyone through his experience as a member of each facet of Masconomet. His talents received formal recognition with his well deserved title of Massachusetts High School Art Educator of the Year for 2002.

Outside of school, Mr. Meinelt spends time with his four children and wife of twenty-nine years. He enjoys sailing, cooking and vacationing on the Vineyard.

Mr. Meinelt is identified best by his humor, charisma and friendly demeanor. Masconomet is privileged to call Terry Meinelt one of their own, the definition of a hometown hero.

> "Mr. Meinelt pushes his students to do their best"

Masco atheletes shined like stars once again as the sports season came to a close. New friendships and bonds were strongly formed as the teams carried their skills into competition. Masco's athletes have always been tough opponents with an immense sense of sportsmanship and pride. The abilities and respect of all Masco's players this year brought them to the highest pedestal in some cases, and has created history. As always, the competitors that uphold tradition continued the excellence which has enhanced Masco's highly regarded reputation. Comgratulations and great job to all teams!

FOOTBALL

The football team had an awesome season this year with a final record of 10-1. The team was led by captains John DeLuca, Drew Carey, Mike Grimes and Justin Belakonis. Their defense was one of the best in the league and their offense was, as described by junior Dean Fraser, "explosive". Their domination did not come without hard work, as senior captain DeLuca states, "it all starts with practice". Football games, especially the Thanksgiving Day game against long time rival North Andover, were attended by many students and faculty members who came to cheer on the Chieftains.

Their new award winning coach helped them with their completely original routine and guided them to many victories, including 2nd place at CALs, 2nd place at the Danvers Invitational, and a 4th place finish at Regionals. ## Hot, Hot, Hot!

This year, the boys soccer season went extremely well. They were led by captians, Duke Travers, DJ Picariello, and Greg Badavas. Despite numerous injuries and suspensions, the team pulled together and heated up the field. Badavas stated in the beginning of the year that "...we are simply going to approach [our] goals one game at a time, and work hard to defend our title from last year". Which they did, winning the CAL Championship for the third year in a row. Although DJ claims that it was his and junior Ben Boepple's "sick" handshake that led them to victory, it was actually the team's defense oriented strategy and unconquerable skills. Their final record was an amazing 17-1-1. You boys are smokin'!

GIRLS SOCCER

This year the girls' soccer team worked hard and had a lot of fun. The captains Jill Jenkinson, Caitlin Walsh, and Sam Kinhan describe this season as the most fun out of their high school career. Although they encountered some trouble in the beginning, they continued sparkling and shining. Many new friends were made at their pasta parties where they laughed and planned their TP trips. Although the team's record was not what they had hoped, (as Jill puts it "We tied 400 times!") they didn't allow this to deter their enthusiasm off the field.

Seniors Sam Hooper (above) and Jill Jenkinson (left) are crucial players on the team. They work together to maintain the ball on Masco's side of the field and do a great job doing so.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field Hockey really stepped up this year by a team record of six wins. The senior captains, Katie Gibson, Lara Hart, Talia Wheeler and Melissa Garcia guided the young team to all of their victories. Their sacred pre-game circle was predicted to help them win 60% of the time, EVERYTIME! Their playful attitude helps them bond each year into an impressive team. Katie thinks that the strong, younger players will lead to a successful future. Even though they do not have the best record or a CAL champ under their belt, it is rumored to be the most fun at Masco.

The girls synergize their skills and talents to create a diversion and score.

Boys Cross Country

Running through Bradley Palmer came easy to the strong Masconomet runners. Their record of 10-2 showed their perseverance and speed. They shared the intense pain of running which brought them together. Traditionally, they celebrated all of their meets by indulging in Meatfest where as captain Brady Czekanski-Moir says "the team ate oodles of meat". The leaders of these star athletes were Brady Czekanski-Moir, Patrick Sheridan-Rossi, and Jason Garrity. You boys better slow down because you're running through our minds!

What's your favorite kind of meat?

Pat Sheridan-Rossi: "I like anything burnt to a crisp with BBQ sauce."

After a lot of hard work and many miles on the road the sixty girl team bonded during their many pasta parties and morning runs. The self-proclaimed "bunnies" practiced hard and achieved another amazing season at their home course, Bradley Palmer. Girls' cross country annihilated every team in their path and eventually became the CAL Champs. Good job girls!

Kelly Larkin and Bethany Bodengraven were excellent leaders this year for the volleyball team. They brought the team together on and off the court. Their many traditions included "delicious" pasta parties and hanging out together. The team also created new traditions such as sleepovers and road trips. Their record couldn't begin to express the immense skills they possess. The other teams got served (and spiked) by these volleyballers!

Golf

The golf team was led by captain Eric Hallworth this year and completed the season with a record of 8-5. They were introduced to their new coach, Ben Hodges, and they hit it off well. Hodges helped the aspiring golfers enhance their skill with his past experience. The big wins in the beginning of the season established their reputation in CALs. They continued the tradition of qualifying for states where putting it in the hole was their main priority and they did a very good job of it.

BOYS HOCKEY

This year, the boys glided gracefully through the season. Although it was somewhat of a transition year, first-year coach Andy LeColst kept them in check. They may have hoped for a higher record, but there's no doubt that the fun they had made up for it. Of course, the guys traditionally shaved their heads in the craziest ways possible, which was quite displeasing to their mothers. Captain Ian Darisse prasied Mrs. Hallworth's "scrumptous" home-cooking for pasta parties. The guys spent a lot of time together on and off the rink and became great friends. Puck it boys!

This year's girls hockey team has come together to form many friendships that will carry on throughout the years. The girls have bonded by carpooling to their away games, enduring grueling 5 AM practices and sharing laughs at pasta parties. Their bonding really helped them win on the ice too. The girls had a record of 9-11 and even though there were more losses than wins, they still proved to be one of the most challenging teams in the league.

This season, the girls indoor track team (GIT) ran their hearts out and were undeafeated as always. The success of the season brought coach Senor Cavalaro to over 100 wins. The large number of team members created a challenge for unity, but also brought numerous talents. The girls persevered through remaining snow and morning practices and their hard work paid off as they became League Champions. Masco's speedy reputation was proved again this year as the team excelled in all events. Whether it be sprinting, long distance, shot put or high jump, these girls strut their stuff. Throughout the years and the multiple championships, the Cape Ann League has realized that Masco is truly undefeatable.

The boys indoor track team high jumped over many hurdles to achieve their record of 7 and 1. Ryan Johnson, Paul Tusini, Jason Garrity, and Derek Williamson truly earned their positions as captains of the team this year. Paul was the leader of the 600 meter dash, Jason ran the 1000, Derek sprinted the 50 and threw the shotput, while Ryan the 50 hurdles. All excelled at their particular event and taught other members how to follow in their foot steps. The team built bonds and relatonships different from any previous years. # GIRLS SKI TEAM

The members of the girls ski team thrive off of the rush of speeding down all of the six slopes of Bradford. Their premium blend of talent and drive led them through their impressive year. Captains Devon McCarty, Caitlin Koris, and Danielle Callahan taught the girls how to make the most out of the little hill by having snow battles, high fives, and snowball fights. Pasta parties at Papa Gino's and at captains' houses with the boys and naming Jon Comeau the "SSB" were also some of the traditions kept alive during the 2005 season. The varsity team raced their hearts out in meets against NA and Austin Prep to smoke the competition. Even though there was a lack of snow the team came together by playing foccer and doing warm ups in the parking lot before the meets. Good job in your successful year girls!

BOYS SKI

The Masconomet ski team showed their skills at the Bradford ski slopes this winter. "Snow Battles", "Snow Fortin' " and "Goin' With The Flow," are traditions of the ski team that illustrate how it got the reputation as the most laid back sport at Masco. These traditions as well as pasta parties at Papa Gino's helped the team bond from the beginning. Gary Wilson, Andrew Merrill, and Patrick Sheridan-Rossi led the team to a .500 season with big wins against Andover and Bishop-Fenwick. Underclassmen helped earn points for Masco in all of their meets. "I have little doubt that the team will struggle next year with all of the seniors leaving," says Andrew "Petey" Merrill. The talent was spread through the squad with as many as three underclassmen receiving a varsity letter. Congratulations to all of the ski team members for a great season, especially the seniors for leaving your mark on Masco. Good luck in the upcoming years boys!

Champs & Chumps

The wrestling team had a great season this year. They earned the name 'Masco Fight Team' (aka MFT).Their record improved from 3-21 last year to 9-14 this year which definitely restored confidence to the team. Their ferocious skills made other teams recognize their abilities. After competing in sectionals, which consisted of Division II North, captain Matthew Perkins placed first, Hamis Green placed fifth and Greg Melville placed 6th. Throughout the season, meets lasted between two and three hours and tournaments could go on all day until 11 at night. By spending so much time together, the guys became great friends. The first year competitors were the best they've been in a while. Senior Mike Grimes feels the team next year will be the strongest its been in 4 years. Senior Phil DiPietrantonio quotes, "This season was a great way to end our Masco wrestling careers." Great job guys!

"The Masconomet swim team has slowly established themselves as a Cape Ann League powerhouse. Last year, their 6-1 record led them to a second place finish in the CALs. Although they lost a lot of their talented seniors , the team is confident that they will continue to join Hamilton-Wenham as one of the top teams in the CAL."

What type of fish best represents your team and why?

"A giant school of goldfish...who eat each other."

Stacy Dell Isola

The Chieftain swim team made quite a splash this year with a record of 6-4 and placing 3rd at CALs. Despite losing over 30 graduating seniors from last year, the team stayed afloat. On the bus rides to meets, the large team had to sit three to a seat which captain Stacy Dell Isola described as "definite bondage". As the season progressed the Chieftains grew closer and swam harder. Captain David Carnivale describes his successful team as "faster than a bottle nose dolphin and more powerful than a great white shark". That's quite a combo. Good luck next year's team and keep your head above water!

The girls' enthusiasm ran high this year as they cheered on the boys basketball and hockey teams. The girls' flexibility ranged from splits to back flips while they were supporting their fellow Masco sports teams. Captains Emily Bonanno, Rachel Lamkin and Amelia Mendes lead the team to place 6 out of 12 in the regional competition. The girls' incredible dance moves and gymnastic stunts stunned the crowds at the games and competitions. Awesome season girls!

BOYS BASKETBALL

This year's boys basketball team has gone farther than ever before by reaching the State Tournament and defeating Danvers in a monsterous upset. The chemistry the boys had was obvious on and off the court. Senior captain Patrick Corcoran says that they "were a tight unit group with no clicks". Even the manager, senior Mustafa "Moo" Sidki, participated in the team's on court huddles and off court get togethers. His constant encouragement including his well known slogan "We can win this team!" keeps the boys in check and allows them to focus on the game. Good job guys! Hoop there it is!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

This year's girls basketball team has shown the seasons of the past how it's done. They started off amazingly, winning the first eleven games they played and finished the season with a record of 17-3. These wins didn't come without a lot of work though, explains captain Sara Rosati saying that they had "long practices, like three hours a day, seven days a week for the first three weeks". The strict practice schedule didn't discourage the girls from having fun too. The team bonded over pasta parties and trips to Celtic games. The chemistry these girls have on and off the court really blew everyone's mind. Good job girls!

Handstands, Cartwheels and Flips, oh my!

The girls are able to balance completing a gravity defying routine with laughing and having fun. Although this year they faced many challenges with a lot of girls not coming back to the team they still had an even record of 4-4. The freshmen class received most of the spots on the team (more than half were freshmen) and they contributed by giving their fresh talent and spark to the routines. The girls were able to bond over pasta parties and lucky stickers, although if you ask us, they didn't need the luck. Good job girls!

Yo Wat Up. I am glad that I will be graduating from Masco with a bunch of my friends. There were some ups and downs, but altogether it was a good time. I will never forget walking the halls with my homies. If it wasn't for my mom and dad, I would never have made it. Thanks to my bros Troy and Rick for being good role models. Thanks to my sisters Leigh-Andrea, Adria , and Crystal for being there when I needed them. If they weren't there, it would have been harder for me to graduate cause they helped me with my school work. Thanks, Mr. Deane, for helping me succeed. I have learned a lot of life lessons that could help me in the future. I appreciate the teachers that helped me out and believed in me. To the Middleton crew, it's been good chilling with you guys. To all of my friends who were there, I appreciate it. I won't forget riding my moped to school because it was the coolest thing. Ya Ya. Have a good one. Peace. I'm out.

I can't believe the time has finally come. We're writing our senior squares and graduating. It feels like we just got here yesterday and now we're leaving for good. I could go on for ever just talking about how weird it seems. But I don't want to. I'm just going to keep it nice and short and say my goodbyes and thank yous. First of all, I just wanna thank my boys- NG, DC, JD, AB, PM, GB, JN, DP, ST, and my girls- NC, ES, NJ, AG, KD, KS, KN, for everything. You all know who you are. We've all had our good and bad times but in the end, everything always worked out fine. Nick, One of my best friends since 3rd grade. We always had our differences and no matter what I thought, you usually thought the opposite. But that's why I think we got along so well. I luv ya keeta. Andy, we had some pretty good times making up stupid words and songs about Mang huh? A.K.A. the Little Big Man. It's hard to believe it's over. That's one thing I'll never forget. Dan, I hope you didn't take those songs seriously. I admit I may have gone a little far by typing up and bringing them to school, but that was just so I'd remember them. Anyways, we had some good times together too, and our group would have never been what it was without you. Jay,(my dawg) many good times and many more to come. See ya when we go back to school as freshmen again. Most of all, I want to thank my mom. You were always there for me and I know I put you through a lot. Especially in the past few months. You know what I mean. I love you and I appreciate all that you've done for me. Thanks. To everyone else, good luck in school and hope to see you all before our first reunion. Oh ya, one more thing, Natalie and Emily- would you maybe, before we graduate, "pleeeeease get me a cheese doodle!" haha- I love you guys, good luck.

High school was a long four years, that went by quick, get it? I'd just like to thank my parents for putting up with me and giving me nothing but love and support along the way. Also I'd like to thank all my teachers for giving me an education. My friends throughout these years, thank you. Thup fellas? Boys varsity hockey team, it was fun and I'll miss u all. To end this thing id just like to say this, high school was like a roller coaster, it had its highs and lows, and I will miss them all.

I came, I saw, I tried to conquer but Delani stopped me before I could. Seriously though, I couldn't have imagined a better four years than this. There's been good times, there's been bad times and there's been some weird ones but I've braved it out with the help of friends and family. Mom and Dad, thanks for supporting me through everything that's happened. Thanks to my sis, who's been a good listener and a great person to steal car rides from. And thanks to my friends, who put up with my temper and weird sense of humor. My biggest thank you though goes to the two friends who welcomed a lonely girl from Maryland with open arms and hearts. Brian and Emily, you guys are the best in the biz.

Good luck, 2006, and never forget the people who helped you on your way to success.

There's no secret to life and there never will be, the only secrets are individual to the person. Try everything once, because even the dumbest things can become a hobby. When you realize that every emotion feels great, you won't be scared of a little pain. To fall in love is to wake up next to that person and feel like the day is already complete. Love your children as if they're only there for a few years, because they may not mind growing up without you. Ignoring it doesn't make it go away and waiting to see what happens almost never works in your favor. Most importantly, being a good friend can be as much as asking what's wrong and listening to them, nothing hurts more than having friends who only care about themselves. To some there's no god, to some there's no happiness, but everyone's entitled to their own point of view and when you learn to try and incorporate others views, then you might just come out as whole person. No one's always right and no one's always wrong, perfection is disgusting and should never be expected from anyone. And as cheasy as it sounds, hope is the dearest thing you can hold, hope for happiness and hope for the occasional sadness, because hope is what makes us into who we are. Thank you to everyone I've met and the lessons that every one of you have taught me.

Throughout high school I was sure that I'd have something witty for my senior square, but as I sit here writing it, I am at a loss for words... I'd like to thank all of Stage Crew for making these past years bearable. Also, I'd like to apoligize in advance for anything Boy does after I'm gone. What is this, your 100th mention in a senior square? Also, I can't forget Longshot, the other greg, Thor, Ben, Cluff, Hannah + Allie. Also, all you Pingree folk, you know who you are. It feels like we just started, but I'm glad its over.

It the little things, like sitting on the bench in the morning, that I will look back on and miss the most. The people that come along with the bench are also a definite plus. You know who you are if you have made a difference in my life. LINDSEY- you have always been there, you were there in third grade and you are still here now, keep it that way. SHAWN- life is so much better when we are actually friends. KRISTIN- birthday buddies for life wink CT VG LW- lets not forget those good times bowling. SH CS- movie club or what? MARC- you mean the world to me and no matter what happens I will always love you! You Are Stellar life is full of MOMENTS, Felix takes them as they come. I really had no clue what to start with, so I let my friends decide. I don't think I would have been able to get threw these 4 long years without them. they were everything to me during the rough times in and out of school. And even if certain someones don't know how I realy feel about them, I'm sure we'll still be friends for life. I'd like to thank my parents, for "guiding" me threw my Highschool years. And for being there when I needed their help. And hopefully the moments that happened here, will stay with me wherever I go. Ahh!!

I hope this quote leaves a good impression that memories of good and bad times should never be regretted. "Maybe our mistakes are what make our fate. Without them, what would shape our lives? Perhaps if we never veered off course, we wouldn't fall in love, or have babies, or be whom we are. After all, seasons change So do cities. People come into your life and people go. But it's comforting to know the ones you love are always in your heart. And if you're very lucky, a plane ride away." For that I am grateful to over come, and be excited for what my future brings. Mom & Dad- thanks for all the support and encouragement. Hannah- hopefully you have as great of a high school experience as I have had, good luck next year. Fiona- Enjoy these years while you can. There are only three people in my life that deserve this 3x4 inch box, but knowing their unending generosity I'm positive they would want me to put everyone else in here as well. Charlotte and Rich, Mom and Dad, whatever other various names I have ever called you, I have always wanted to tell you these following sentences but so no such words have been able to represent even the smallest feelings I have for you both. Mom, you are single handedly the nicest person in the world. Your idyllic personality every day amazes me. No matter the mood, your presence always brings out my smile. Dad, I have never idolized anyone else more than you. Every son should have the perfect footsteps that you leave to follow. You're both the best parents ever and I love being your son. Lauren you're my big sis, and I wouldn't want it any other way. You're an awesome friend and I'm proud to say that you're my sister. To all my buddies that have carried me since Spofford, I will never forget the good times at recess, especially getting chased by you girls. Anyone that I met from 7th grade and up, thanks for all the fun experiences that made high school so great. Scotty my brother, you've always been the best companion anyone could have, thank you. Lex, your an awesome person and your smile couldn't make me happier. No matter what you're always going to be my little freshman. J-strizzle have a good 4, you'll always have 2 older brothers to look up to. Golf team put everything in the hole. Hockey boys, It's been awesome, good luck with herb. To everyone else, teachers, random others, thank you for helping me find every right path along the way. – Your friend, EH

Wow guys… Really. It's flown by. I remember at freshman orientation they told us it would fly, and I thought "4 years… Of school? How can it fly by?" Well… It has. And it couldn't have been any better.

And now to the shoutouts…

REID: Dude, been friends since 1st grade. Aren't a whole lot of people who can say that they've had the same best friend that long.

It's finally here. My senior year of high school. Within months time, I will be graduating and then heading off to college to pursue my career in Meteorology. The past 12 or so years of my life have, for the most part, been really good. I've met a lot of cool people and have done a lot of cool things. Though I have not always lived in Middleton. I was actually raised in Everett, MA. I stayed there for nearly 16 years! It was not until upwards of about 2½ years ago that I decided to move to Middleton. So far, I have had a good experience living in this area. It is very quiet and tranquil. My friends from Everett refer to it as the "boonies." Anyway, I'm running out of space, so I need to wrap this up. I would like to thank everyone who supported me along the way. This includes and follows the order of the one and only God, my family and my friends. Thank You God, Mom, Dad, Loreen, Christine, Dan and Mike. Remember: THINK SNOW!!!

lot had changed since my Scandinavian infancy inside a long boat on the high seas.
True, pillaging and looting had its appeal, but there's a time when every young king has to grow up. With my newfound interests and responsibilities, I made new ends and terrible terrible enemies. But despite the threat of Erik Redbeard and Lars arlssön, I survived high school and feel that my Viking roots have been upheld. By ly side through all this transition were amazing friends, who not only renewed my innate Nordic interest in pillaging, but introduced me to the things that define me oday. We've spent our time wisely and maturely, partying at plum island, mfc-ing, aking parties, band practices, mind-blowing concerts. Hmmdeedy, we've spent our ne wisely, and to the best of our Viking ability. To be a Viking in this modern, law-iding and morally neutral society is tough, but I could not have done it without my horts, my parents and Commandeers Meinelt, Pearsall and Daykin. Everyone I've met these 4 years, The G-Crew, poopy, nutmeg, cupcake, dukehart, adri and of ourse Mr. Scandinavia himself and Admiral D all carried me through high school, ving me afraid only of warheads, small dogs….and carnies. And now as we set off our burning longboats into the romantic sunset of the future, I say "takk sal du ha, och ha det god"

Twists, and curves. We all walk along these paths one step at a time,
My friends and family have walked along at my side,
And some people have left footprints embedded in the ground,
Thank you all for staying by my side as I embark on this journey through life.

The four years at Masco went by fast. Becoming a senior was something I had hoped since I was in High school, freshman year. I would like to thank a few teachers for making it possible and bearable at times, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Clark (I didn't even have him), Senor Cavallaro, Mr. Fay, and this year, Mr. Meegan. These teachers showed me great qualities about teaching that I now look for in other teachers. My fellow classmates, whom I have been with for the past four years, have had a big impact on my High School life. The few, PJ, MM, DW, SC, BC, MK, EK, PC, PM, RM, JV have always been great friends and good people to be with. I give, with great thanks, to the select few in my history class, MS, KA, PB, SE, for adopting such a unique nickname for me, that the whole school now knows me by. Thanks a lot guys. Other than that I don't think I will miss Masco, thinking of it as another step stone in my life.

It is said that high school is what you make of it, and my friends have made it the best time of my life. Thank you to all those who have helped me become who i am today.

Everyone else- LB, NC, Jackie-poo, Wes, Phil, AM, Andrew, Nikki, Tori, Mikay, JP, Frankie, Cbarb,JC, BH, Mccarthy,Ben thanks for everything! I love you all! ☺

First of all, I would like to thank God for helping me through these tough years as an adolescent. Also, I want to thank my mother (mom, your love for me has been incredible), my father (dad, thank you for always being there and teaching me all you know), and mike (mike you just da man!) for supporting me all the way, through thick or thin. To my sister, Gabby, I know we've had our differences but I love you very much all the same. And a very special thanks to all the students and teachers at Masco for immediately accepting me when I moved here in the middle of my junior year; for that, I am grateful. A shout out to my team mates in cross country and wrestling. It's been a rocky ride (and fun too!) for all of us and I wish everyone luck in the future.

Sincerely, James Kin

It just seemed like yesterday we were freshman and now all of the sudden BAM we are seniors and ready to make the big step in our lives. Matt- (---- (My favorite brother) Anytime I needed help with math you would always be there, thx for the help and support b love you man. Laura- (---(My favorite sister) o realllly???? During your life there are only two roads to go down. The good, where you go to school don't do drugs and drink, and try to accomplish your goals. Then there is the bad, where you skip school, do drugs and drink, and give up on your goals because you think you can't accomplish them. The day you start high school is the day you start walking down one of these roads but just because you start on one road doesn't mean you will be on it forever. There are trails that allow these roads to connect. So if you are on the good roa which everyone would like to be on, try as hard as you can to stay on it don't get lost ar go down a trail to the bad road. And if you end up on that bad road there are so many trails to get on the good road its weather you want to look for them or not. During high school I wasn't on either road I was stuck on a trail and couldn't find my way but now I have found my way and I am on the good road leading to many opportunities in my future. But I couldn't have done it without my family and friends. Mom and Dad- If it wasn't for you I would have given up along time ago and would have taken the wrong road but I didn't and I thank you for that. I love you guys so much! Philip, David and Peter- I wish the best to you in the future and remember to make the right choices. Love you guys! My girls- I love you and hope the best to you! MwAh! Class of 2005- Just remember roads can be rough and have their rocks but just make the right choices and you will be able to go right over them. Have FAITH like the Red Sox did, Look what they did with a little FAITH!

h school is finally over. The four years that we thought we be so long have ended so quickly.
the memories that we all have shared will live on in all of us through college and the rest of lives. I can't say that these past years have been easy but I can say that I would not trade them nything and without these experiences I would not be the person that I am today. There are any people that I have to thank; starting with all of the teachers I've had throughout my years lasco. They each had a unique affect on my life, whether it be good or bad. But, it is because heir advice and teachings that I have survived these years and for this I am very thankful and them well after I am gone. I also have to thank my family because without them I would have nothing. Without their support I would not have been able to live through high school or eed how I have. My friends, they were always there for me, though good and bad and never I needed them. I have to thank Paul, Eric, Amber-u can't handle it. Anthony, Jon, Dylan, , Greg, Angelo, Kelly, Heather, Monica, Katy, Ashley, Ashmi, Nikki, Caitlin, Kyle, Dan, and nissed u I'm sorry. I have to thank the wrestling team you guys are like family and every n we help each other through the hard times and no matter what we never leave anyone nd, coach u have made an honest difference in my life and I thank you for that. Finally, I have ank my amazing girlfriend. Krysten, since the day I met you I knew that I couldn't live her without you, thank you for all the great times we've had and everything you've done for I love you. Walking across the stage and taking that diploma may mean the end of high ol, but it represents the beginning of the rest of our lives. Masco class of 2005-Every end is a

There are so many things I could say here- inside jokes, thanks and memories - but words wouldn't do them justice, so I'll just leave it at this. I hope you already know what words can't say.

Like every good story, here must be an end. It's the only way we can relive this again, so let it go and wave goodbye. Because happiness is a handfull of years away. It's easier to count the days than hours. We learned that the hard way. So let's make the best of a great situation.

The last four years have been pretty interesting. I'd say it goes by fairly fast. And there was no way to see it coming. Thanks mom and dad for always being there and always doing all the things you do for me. Thank you for your support and helping me whenever I needed it. You are both wonderful parents, I love you. All my friends, you know who you are. Thank you. Every one of you, the interactions I've made with you over the years have made me what I am today. My best friends: beach fires, just hanging out, golfing, lunch conversations, band practices, and everything else were good good times. Working at Masco was fun too, Wally and goosing. Here's my shout out to the wrestling team, you guys are great. XC was always fun. Just remember, it's for the endurance. Kyle, thanks for the ride man. All of the teachers I've had, thanks for putting up with me and making me a better person. To all my peers, I needed you guys too. Thanks for making things interesting. Oh yeah, and thanks for electing me, I'm glad you liked my campaign. Bethany, you are fireworks to my soul. Thank you always for being you. You are absolutely inspiring; you have changed the way I smile. Like a kid loves candy and fresh snow. Thanks for the book. That's about it. Good luck everyone, may we meet again. Farewell! – Tim Michele, my little sista or Teeg, thanx 4 putting up with me and always making me laugh. To all my friends, you know who you all are, I LOVE YOU and I'll never forget those memories we had together whether it was a couple of cupas, midnight snacks & drinks, red sox parties/games, is it windy in here? Getting egged, Salem, dropping the milk in the CVS parking lot, nice butt, chunky nickname, zagnuts & milkyways, problem sets or is that a car outside? Friends are like siblings God forgot to give us, & I definitely think of you guys as family. I'd like to leave my thanks with the people that deserve it.

No matter how hard things got for me he always had an analogy or a metaphor to keep me thinking, to keep me motivated. College would be more than a stretch if he hadn't helped force me to complete all those papers and homework assignments.

Edward Stuart Deane, my only good influence, thanks.

Also thanks to Norm, wherever you are.

Oh and to those variations of friends that I've had and once I have now, here:abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz, you can take two of the letters and make your initials out of it if it makes you feel special, thanks.

The 2004 Junior-Senior prom was the highest attended prom in Masconomet history, with nearly 600 people attending. Held at the Sheraton Colonial in wakefield, MA, the night began with pictures in a beautiful courtyard. Holding true to the theme of Starry Night, the multiple rooms were illuminated and were named after constellations. Voted on by the junior class, Eric Hallworth and Amber Gibney were chosen as the King and Queen, reigning with a beautiful prom court. I love u so much! No one could ask 4 a better big sister. U taught me things that parents can't & u looked out 4 me. Thank u 4 getting me involved in high school & not w/the bad stuff. We've had such kick butt times (NYC, Cancun, Kiawah, blasting Maroon 5 & Tupac in ur car, etc.). You're such an amazing athlete…keep running! I wish I could be just as good as u are! I <3 all our funny convos late at night & ur nicknames for me – wow there's too many! You owe me for all those college trips, makeup tips, and the mornings u "borrowed" my clothes. I'll miss u so much; what will I do w/o u?? Be good & stay out of trouble! HAVE FUN!

Love ALWAYS,

So take the photographs, and still frames in your mind.

Hang it on a shelf in good health and good time.

Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial.

For what it's worth, it was worth all the while.

It's something unpredictable,

but in the end it's right.

I hope you had the time of your life.
